FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ANACORTES – The Port of Anacortes is pleased to announce the following staffing updates:

The Port's newly created position of Director of Planning, Properties, & Environmental has been accepted by Brenda Treadwell. Brenda is an Anacortes native with a unique combination of education and experience. She comes to us from the Department of Natural Resources where she worked in a number of positions for the past nine years, most recently as the Aquatic Resources District Manager. Brenda has a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Washington State University and a Doctor of Jurisprudence from the University of Oregon School of Law.

Marina Director and Harbormaster, Dale Fowler is retiring after nearly 29 years of service to the Port. Brad Johnson has accepted the position of Interim Harbormaster at Cap Sante Marina. Brad is being promoted from within as Marina Operations Supervisor to Interim Harbormaster. He has been with the Port since 2001, and brings a wealth of experience to the job. Brad has an outstanding reputation both in the community, and at the Port. He will start in this position Wednesday, April 20th, and begin the turnover with Dale Fowler immediately. Dale's last day is Saturday, May 7th, and we will celebrate his retirement at our Opening Day of Boating Season event from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Marina's Central Pier. The public is invited!

About the Port of Anacortes

The Port of Anacortes was formed in 1926 to promote economic development for Anacortes and the surrounding area. The Port district is led by a board of five elected commissioners: John Pope, Joe Verdoes, Ray Niver, Keith Rubin and Bill Short. Public meetings are held the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of the month at 7:00 p.m. in the Commission Meeting Room of the Port Transit She Event Center, 100 Commercial Avenue, Anacortes, WA.
